

Koebner phenomenon
is observed in approximately 20–60% of patients with vitiligo and is associated with more active disease.

