

Facial lesions repigment best, whereas lesions on the hands, feet, and bony prominences respond poorly because these sites have fewer hair follicles, the major reservoir of melanocyte stem cells.

